

Homelessness Definitions for the Logan VI SPDAT

A person or family can only be added to the By Name List when they are known to be currently homeless. See Homelessness Definition Table below

Homelessness Definitions for the Logan Advance to Zero
Rough Sleeping	Chronically Homeless
People without Accommodation	People living in temporary or crisis accommodation	People living in severely inadequate and insecure accommodation
People sleeping in the streets or in other open spaces (such as parks, railway embankments, under bridges, on pavement, on river banks, in forests)	People staying in night shelters (where occupants have to renegotiate their accommodation nightly)	People sharing with friends and relatives on a temporary basis
People sleeping in public roofed spaces or buildings not intended for human habitation (such as bus and railway stations, taxi ranks, derelict buildings, public buildings, etc.)	People living in homeless hostels and other types of temporary accommodation for homeless people (where occupants have a designated bed or room)	People living under threat of violence or abuse
People sleeping in their cars, rickshaws, open fishing boats and other forms of transport	Women and children living in refuges for those fleeing domestic violence	People living in cheap hotels, bed and breakfasts and similar
Rough Sleepers - individuals or households who live on the street in a regular spot, usually with some form of makeshift cover	People living in camps or reception centres/temporary accommodation for asylum seekers, refugees and other immigrants	People squatting in conventional housing
People being exit from institutions into homelessness or unsuitable, insecure accommodation	People living in dwellings without secure tenure	People living in trailers, caravans and tents
		People living in non-conventional buildings and temporary structures, including those living in slums/informal settlements
		People living in extremely overcrowded conditions
		People living in conventional housing that is unfit for human habitation
		People living in unaffordable accommodation

Source: Institute of Global Homelessness Framework 2021

